Overview

What if every student gained the knowledge and skills to navigate difficult situations related to sexual misconduct in a safe and private practice environment? Kognito's Sexual Misconduct Prevention for Students fosters a safer campus culture around issues related to sexual misconduct and federal Title IX requirements.

This product equips college students with the skills to be an active bystander, respond effectively to a friend who has experienced trauma, and determine if consent has been given. Trigger warnings will be given during the introduction as well as leading students into each of the scenarios to be mindful of their experience and how the content may affect them. Users have access to customized national, local, and school-specific resources in addition to simulation content.

Features

✓ Simulated practice

Extensive research shows that increased emotional engagement and reflective thinking leads to stronger self-efficacy and behavior change.

✓ Dynamic learning

Conversation scenarios adapt to meet students where they are, and give individual feedback across standardized content.

✓ Diverse perspectives

Scenarios include diverse examples of sexual orientation and gender identity.

✓ Compliant

Includes content required by law and is consistent with student training requirements under the Clery Act, the Campus SaVE Act, and Title IX guidelines. Customize your own list of campus policies and resources.

The simulation is available online 24/7. Users are asked to complete pre-, post-, and 3-month follow up surveys to assess changes in skills, attitudes, and behavior. Upon completion, users receive a certificate of completion. Clients have access to usage reports and evaluation data via the Kognito client portal.
